* Notes: Under ss. 60.62 and 62.23 (1), Wis. stats., the town board may by ordinance create a town plan commission, to consist of 7 members. All members of the commission shall be appointed by the town board chairperson, subject to confirmation by the town board, who shall also choose the presiding officer. The chairperson may appoint town elected or appointed officials, including town board members, except that the commission shall always have at least 3 citizen members who are not town officials, and except that in towns with a population of less than 2,500, the town plan commission may have 5 members with at least one citizen member who is not a town official.

 Under s. 62.23 (1) (d), Wis. stats., the members of the commission shall be appointed to hold office for a period of 3 years. Appointments shall be made during the month of April for terms that expire in April or at any other time if a vacancy occurs during the middle of a term.
